HAS ORDERED CHARGES AGAINST HEAD OF THE FIREMEN'S MUTUAL BENEFIT ASSOCIATION.

James D. Clifford, president of the Firemen's Mutual Benefit Association, a Republican in poli tics, asserts that there are interests at work which threaten to break up the association. He made a long statement for publication yesterday in which he hints that Chief Croker and Fire Comsioner Scannell are persecuting the members of the association because they sought in 1895 to get through the Legislature bills increasing their sularies. According to Mr. Clifford, Messrs. Croker and Scannell have chosen the present time to make war upon the association because they think that money is being collected by the association to influence legislation.

Commissioner Scannell and Chief Croker were out with statements last night, in which they say that new charges will be brought against Clifford, broken up. Commissioner Scannell said:

Hereafter any men who belong to a political organization who are connected with this Department will have charges preferred against them. They violate Section 738 of the charier, which provides that any member of any uniformed force of the city shall not belong to a political organization.

I will break any offenders, and will let them go to the courts for reinstatement. If the courts should reinstate them the responsibility would rest the Legislature.

I estimate that there are over ten thousand men in New-York without work, and they would be only too glad to get in the Department. The firemen have an easier time of it than most men. They do not have to work—actually work—more than thirty-three days in the year.

The statistics of last year show that the hook and ladder companies were actually out at work only 347 hours, or about fourteen days. The engine companies were at work 275 hours, or approximate-ly eleven and a half days.

companies were at work 275 hours, or approximately eleven and a half days.

In support of my argument that the men are better paid than most men, they get $1.499 a year after three years in the Department. Besides that, after twenty years in the service, they are retired on a pay of $700 a year for life.

There are a number of other occupations just as dangerous and risky as the Fire Department. In those positions, such as blasters, bridge builders and various workers in fulminate shops and workers on high buildings, the men have to work from eight to twelve hours a day.

Commissioner Scannell has ordered Chief Croker to investigate the benevolent association and the firemen in general, and has declared that men found belonging to political organizations or tampering with politics in any way will have charges

Fire Chief Croker expressed himself emphatically last evening when the subject of the Fire

"The association does not contain any officers of the Department except those who have been promoted from the ranks while they were members of the organization. A new association has been formed, and it will be open to all—those at the head or those in the ranks of the Department. The new association is purely benevolent, and was organized with a view of promoting harmony between men and officers as well. It will be in no way a violation of law or the rules or regulations, for no religious or political discussions will be allowed, nor will the association exert any influence on matters of that kind.

"As for Captain Clifford's statement that there has been any persecution in the Department, I absolutely deny all knowledge of such persecution.

This whole trouble started in 1895, when the form board was in power. Clifford and two or ree of his Republican friends were the advisers that board, and they have been making trouble vill you prefer charges against Captain Clif-

KERR SHOOTING EXPLAINED.

MR. BAILEY, IN MIS BROWN HUNTING SUIT, MISTAKEN BY DR. DADE

FOR A DEER. Mrs. Salma A. Kerr, of No. 668 Fifth-ave., this friend, who were accidentally shot on Thursday evening of last week on the game preserve of the Tahawus Club, thirty-five miles north of North Creek, in the Adirondacks, were mistaken for deer by Dr. Charles T. Dade, of No. 63 East Fiftysixth-st., this city, who was on the other side of a small clearing from Mrs. Kerr and Mr. Bailey. sterday by George Livingston Nichols, of No. 05 East Fifty-sixth-st., from his business partner, Arthur H. Masten, who is at the Tahawus Club. Nichols was seen last night. He said: left the camp, which is about thirty-five miles beyond North Creek, in the Adirondacks, in Essex County, ten days ago; and then my partner, Mr. Masten, with his family, went up for his vacation. I got a letter from Mr. Masten this morning, and he clears up practically all the mystery surround-ing the sad accident to Mrs. Kerr and Mr. Balley near the Tahawus Club last week.

"Mr. Bailey is a good shot and so is Mrs. Kerr, who has been going to the Adirondacks for the last fifteen years. There is a clearing about two miles from the club, not far from a tributary of the Hudson, and Mrs. Kerr and Mr. Bailey were near this clearing waiting to get a shot at a deer. Twilight is the best time of day to hunt them. Mr. Balley were a shooting coat of reddish brown, and at this time of the year it is almost exactly the

"A wood road runs along the edge of the clearing about two hundred yards away, and Dr. Dade was out gunning for deer on this road. As Mr. Bailey passed a shrub two hundred yards away and fired. Mrs. Kerr was exactly in range, and the bullet that went through Mr. Balley's back near by and the injured persons were removed to welt Hospital staff, was at the clubhouse and was summoned from New-York to care for the two patients, both of whom are doing well. I under-stand from my partner's letter that Mrs. Kerr's limb was successfully amputated between the knee and the hip, and that she has a bright prospect of recovery. Mr. Balley's wound is not necessarily Dr. Dade accustomed to hunting?" Mr. Nich-"Is Dr. Dade accustomed to hunting?" Mr. Nichols was saked.

"Oh, yes," said he. "He is a member of the Tahawus Club, and every year goes up to hunt and fish. I can readily imagine how the doctor mistock Mr. Balley for a deer. There are many such accidents in the Adirondacks every year, although few of them result so disastrously. If I remember correctly, there were about forty such accidents last season, and a number of hunters were killed outright. A brown shooting coat, a little darker brown than a khakit uniform, in the twillight locks much like the red hide of a deer at this season of the year. It is an accident that might have happened to any of us."

As soon as Dr. Dade discovered what he had done he was prostrated with grief and nervousness, and his friends have received word that his condition is almost as serious as that of Mrs. Kerr and Mr. Bailey. At his house lest night it was said that his mother had heard from him that he was feeling better and that both the injured ones were doing well.

from Philadelphia to take him home as soon as he sable to travel.

Mrs. Kerr is the widow of Chauncey J. Kerr, who died in 1894. She is a wealthy woman, and her home at No. 668 Fifth-ave, is a particularly handsome one. A rumor to the effect that Mr. Bailey and Mrs. Kerr were engaged to be married is denied by the friends of Mrs. Kerr, who say that for fifteen years Mr. Bailey has been a friend of the Coes, whom he visits in this city every year.

CIRCLE MUSIC HALL NOT OPENED. The Circle Music Hall, at Broadway and Sixtieth-st, of which Evans & Mann are the pro-prietors, was not opened last night, as expected. A representative of the proprietors said that the house could not be opened until the Board of Police Commissioners granted a license. He hoped that the license would be granted in a few days. There seems to be some difficulty in the starting of places of amusement in this neighborstarting of piaces of amusement in this neighborhood. Objections were made, most properly, to the opening of one which seemed likely to prove disreputable, a few months ago, but there is no indication that the present one would be of a worse character than many in other parts of the city. A café adjoining it is already opened, so the liquor license must have been already granted, and the rub must come on the granting of the licenses for the selling of liquors and the giving of performances together.

ORDERS THE FORCE TO BE COURTEOUS AND DIRECTS CAPTAINS TO COMPLAIN.

Chief Devery yesterday sent out to the com manders of all precincts a communication calling attention to the fact that so many complaints of brutality and discourteous treatment on the part of policemen have come to Headquarters that he has decided to take strenuous action in case of complaints of this nature henceforth. The letter

New-York, September 21, 1900.

Sir: Complaints are made from time to time regarding the conduct of police officers in their intercourse with citizens, which, it is alleged, is in many instances indifferent, rough and at times even insolent. As a matter of fact, there should not be grounds for a single complaint of this kind against any officer. Under no circumstances should a police officer fail to conduct himself in a courteous and businesslike manner in his official intercourse with citizens. It is sometimes unavoidable for a policeman to use force, and he should always assert his authority on proper occasion, but there is no reason for his ever behaving in a discourteous manner.

Especially is this the case when a police officer s by circumstances called upon to render some ryice in the line of police duty, or to give proper aformation to strangers and to citizens generally, then he should be careful so to conduct himself hat he will not lay himself liable to criticism by a ill mannered and discourteous performance of a riffling duty.

an ill mannered and discourted by triffing duty.

I warn the members of the force of this Department that they must in the future be careful in this respect and strictly comply with this order. Any complaint that reaches me of a citizen being used improperly, discourteously or roughly by any policeman will be thoroughly investigated and will result in a complaint against the offending member.

Commanding officers are especially instructed to see that the members of their respective commands fully comply with all the rules and regulations of the service regarding the conduct and deportment of policemen in their intercourse with the public, and to make complaints against any member who fails to observe these rules and regulations. Read this order to the members of this command at three successive platoon rollcalls invastigately following its receipt. command at three successive particles and at three successive particles are mediately following its receipt.

DEATH OF A. B. HART.

ALFRED DE CORDOVA LEARNS THAT IT WAS DUE TO APOPLEXY.

A mystery surrounds the death of A. B. Hart, nember of the Consolidated Stock and Petroleur Exchange, which occurred at his summer home Woodsmere, Long Island, yesterday, Mr. Hart was a family connection of Alfred and Eustace De Cordova, of the well known Stock Exchange house of Alfred De Cordova & Co., having married a daughter of their half brother, the late Altamont De Cordova. It was at first reported that he had committed suicide, but Alfred De Cordova was inclined yesterday to discredit this statement. Mr.
De Cordova said that he had had word from Long Island that Mr. Hart's body had been found at the foot of the dock adjoining his home at Woodsnere, and that the Coroner had discovered, on making the post mortem examination, that death had been due to apoplexy, caused by a clot of blood on the brain. Mr. Hart had been long of Tennessee Coal and Iron, which had declined sharply in the stock market during the last few days, and it was possible that the worry caused by his losses might have brought about the fatal attack. Mr. Hart, who was about thirty-four years of age, was formerly in the wholesale grocery business at Kingston, Jamaica, but had been a resident of this city for about Your years. He had been a member of the Consolidated Exchange for eleven months, and made his headquarters in the office of Aaron De Cordova, in the Consolidated Exchange Building. He had, of late, it is said, been trading in a very small way. Aaron De Cordova said yesterday afternoon that he had received a letter earlier in the day from Mr. Hart ordering him to close out all the latter's contracts.

NEW-YORK CITY.

Dr. Lyman Beecher Sperry's course of lectures before the young men at the Twenty-third Street Young Men's Christian Association next week is the outcome of a course given last year at the same place by popular request. Some of the sub-jects are "The Building of a Man," "The Greatest struck Mrs. Kerr, who was sitting a few feet distant. Ald was summoned from a lumber camp Perpetuation and Perfection," to be given at 8 o'clock on weekday evenings. Sunday afternoon at 2.45 o'clock Dr. Sperry speaks on "Angels and Devils; or, Two Lads and Two Ladders," and Frederick Butler will sing. Men only are admitted, and admission is free.

Senators J. M. Thurston, of Nebraska, and O. H. Platt, of Connecticut, a sub-committee, which is investigating the condition of the Indians of this State, will have a hearing at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, at 9 a. m. to-day. They will hear testimony about the Indians of Long Island,

Fifty-seventh-st. and Broadway, will be held tomorrow at 4 p. m. The service will be in charge of the Rev. H. Hartwell Pratt, who has conducted the meetings all summer, and the sermon will be preached by the Rev. Dr. J. F. Carson, paster of the Central Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn. The Church of the Messiah, Thirty-fourth-st. and Park-ave., will open with the Rev. Robert Collyer in the pulpit to-morrow. Dr. Minot J. Savage has returned to the city much improved in health. He will begin his work of preaching on the first Sunday in October.

CHIMNEY FACTORIES TO RESUME WORK.

MANUFACTURERS ADVANCE BOTH WAGES AND PRICES.

Pittsburg, Sept. 21.-The vote on the proposition of the glass chimney manufacturers con-ceding an advance of 5 per cent in wages was received to-day, and is favorable to an acceptance of the increase. All the factories in the country will resume operations at once. This will give employment to 2,700 skilled workmen and 12,000 unskilled men. The manufacturers have made an advance of from 2 to 20 cents a dozen in different sizes and qualities. The advance is justified, the manufacturers say, because of the sharp advance in all raw materials aside from the advance in wages to all employes.

"ACCUSED" NEGROES LYNCHED.

New-Orleans, Sept. 21.—In "bloody" Tangipoah Parish last night four negroes were hanged, after the jail in the village of Pontohtoula had been broken open and the prisoners, accused of robbing the family of Henry Holfelter, had been taken from their cells. Mrs. Louise Holfelter, who resisted the colored men, was choked and beaten so unmercifully that she lost her mind. Wholesale lynchings are feared. The men lynched were Isalah Rollins, Nathaniel Bowman, Charles Eillott and George Blekham. New-Orleans, Sept. 21.-In "bloody" Tangipoah

EX-GOVERNOR STONE TELLS COLORED VOTERS THAT TIMES HAVE CHANGED.

Ex-Governor Stone of Missouri addressed the United Colored Democracy at their clubhouse, No. 152 West Fifty-third-st., last night. Edward E. Lee in introducing Governor Stone said it was the second baptism of the Colored Democracy, first by Richard Croker, and then by Governor Stone. The latter said in part:

Gentlemen, I am gratified to meet such a strong and representative set of men of the colored race as I see before me. It has been a long time since the close of the war, when the shackles were torn from the limbs of men forever. Since that time the colored people have clung to the Republican party, and it is natural that they should, and it is a credit to them. If I belonged to your race, the name of Lincoln should rank with that of Jesus Christ. There are but two or three great names in history. The names of Thomas Jefferson, who wrote the Declaration of Independence; of Patrick Henry. Henry Clay, Andrew Jackson, Grant and Sherman are great, but I question if their names will live so long as Lincoln's. For the names of Washington and Lincoln will live for thirty centuries. No wonder that you revere the names of Lincoln and the Republican party, which he represented: But time changes, and has changed. There is nothing occurring in this country that I am more glad to see than that you are going to support the policy of William J. Bryan.

The Governor was followed by Edward E. Lee, Charles E. Brown, P. Hampton White, S. J. Jackson, W. R. T. Richardson, John A. Montgomery and

STANCHFIELD AGAIN ANSWERED.

B. J. GREENHUT ON THE DEPARTMENT STORE AS AN ISSUE.

B. J. Greenhut, of the firm of the Siegel-Cooper Company, at Eighteenth-st, and Sixth-ave., says that of the four members of the firm two are Democrats, and that the crusade against depart-ment stores begun by John B. Stanchfield, Democratic candidate for Governor, is regarded as ridicu-

"It looks to me like an exemplification of the old saying that a drowning man will catch at straws," said Mr. Greenhut to a Tribune reporter yesterday afternoon. "Probably Mr. Stanchfield finds vote getting hard work, and he has begun the agitation against department stores in order to win few extra votes. I am surprised that a lawyer of his standing and intelligence should do such I cordially indorse the views of Robert C. Ogden and Nathan Straus. I read the article in The Tribune to-day, and it seems to me that Mr. Straus has sized the situation up about right.

"If there were not a public demand for a large store like ours in this city Mr. Stanchfield can rest assured that it would not be here. We are successful because the people find it to their advantage to patronize us. A department store is no more like a trust than daylight is like darkness. They are different in their very natures. A trust in the hands of unscrupulous men seeks to make money by raising prices. A department store does nothing of the kind. The steady tendency in the department store is to reduce prices o the consumer. If fifteen or twenty of the largest department stores in this city should make an agreement to put up the prices of dress goods 15 cents a yard, how long do you suppose their prices would hold? We might do it a few days, but we wouldn't sell any goods to speak of. The law of gravitation in margins would settle the problem at Other concerns would see to it that we secured no such profits. Competitors would rush in their goods and we would be worse off than we were in the beginning in the loss of good cus-

"There was a great deal of agitation against department stores in Chicago following the World's Fair. Thousands of shopkeepers rushed in there and established small stores. The fair visitors did not visit the Exposition to buy goods, but to see the fair, and as soon as the fair was over these small shopkeepers failed in business by the score. It was simply a case of there being no customers for them. The department stores were blamed by the real estate men for the downfall of the small shopkeepers. But you can't indict a whole people. The department stores used no compulsion. The people went where they liked to trade.

"If Mr. Stanchfield should come to me and in following up the logic of his attack on department stores say that our store was conducted on lliegitimate lines and that our methods would not bear a close inspection, I should tell him that he was crazy. No sane man would take such a position unless some political motive inspired him. I show him scores and hundreds of new small stores where the proprietors are making a good living, where the proprietors are making a good living, and making as much money on the capital invested as the big department stores.

'It is largely a question of brains. If the small storekeeper knows his business and keeps his expenses down and uses good judgment in buying his stocks, he can get along and make money. Thousands of small dealers are doing this in this city, and their number is increasing all the time. The streets each side of Fifth-ave, and Broadway, below Forty-second-st., are evidence of this fact. Mr. Stanchfield knows this well enough if way, below Forty-second-st., are evidence of this fact. Mr. Stanchfield knows this well enough if he has looked around. He simply wants the votes and he is attacking the department stores because he thinks he can get a few extra votes by so doing."

OWENS TO OPEN HIS CAMPAIGN. M'CARREN MAY ALSO BE OPPOSED BY AN INDEPENDENT.

George A. Owens, Republican candidate for Senator in the VIIth District, against Senator P. H. McCarren, will begin a hustling campaign today when the George A. Owens Republican Association will have a picnic at Ibert's Union Park, Metropolitan-ave. and Helen-st., Brooklyn.

There is a prospect that there will be an inde-pendent Democratic candidate in this district. Ex-Assemblyman Bartley Wright has been mentioned in this connection. Although it is normally a Democratic district Mr. Owens several years ago gave McCarren the surprise of his life by defeating him for the Senate.

MR. MACKEY SHOWS HIS "COURAGE." Senator William F. Mackey, of Buffalo, who is rying hard these days to live down his reputation ing the most extensive purchaser of political gold bricks that Erie County ever produced, made the principal speech yesterday noon at the Com mercial Travellers' and Hotel Men's Anti-Trust League. Mr. Mackey doesn't expect to see his name in the papers after election night for at least two years, and he is making the most of his opportunities these days. After taking a good big drink of water cooled by ice from the Croker-Carroll-Van Wyck-Morse Ice Trust, Mr. Mackey said a lot of severe things about trusts. Mr. Mackey was at the Democratic State Convention and saw Senator McCarren, Senator Grady and others strangle the resolution offered by Professor D. C. Lee calling for prosecution of the Ice Trust of this city. The whole Tammany-McLaughlin-Eric County delega-The closing services of the Glad Tidings Tent, at Lee Trust resolution. Mr. Mackey has screwed up his courage since then, apparently, for yesterday, in addressing the drummers' friends, he said: The Democratic party has the courage to defy and defeat the greed of monopolies, whether it be the Sugar, the Steel, the Iron or the Ice trust, in this great Democratic city.

After he had taken another drink of the same kind of ice water he continued: The Democratic party does not propose to shield any of its own members who are engaged in monopolles that injure the people.

Mr. Mackey criticised the Dingley Tariff act, and told of the work of the trusts in and around the western part of the State. Mr. Mackey was fol-lowed by Assistant District Attorney Osborne and by James Lindsay Gordon.

O. H. P. BELMONT FOR LEVY'S PLACE. The friends of Jefferson M. Levy were much dismayed yesterday when it became generally known that Mr. Levy was not to get a renomination for Congress in the XIIIth District. It is said that O. H. P. Belmont will be named to succeed him. Mr. Levy's friends are working hard to bring about his renomination, and will try to head off the Belmont boom. Mr. Belmont's friends are sanguin of success, however, and say that the nomination has been promised to him.

It was declared yesterday that S. J. Keating, a son of Commissioner Keating, would be named for Congress in the XIIth District. This district is now represented by George B. McClellan. It is said to be the Tammany plan to reserve Mr. McClellan as a Tammany candidate for Mayor next year.

PINO FREEDOM-A TRAVEL-LER ON TRUSTS.

There was an audience of nearly three thousand men at the noonday meeting of the Wholesale Dry-goods Republican Club, at Broadway and Leonard-st., yesterday. Isaac Fuld, a commercial traveller for the H. B. Claffin Company, stirred the audience to much enthusiasm at the beginning of the meeting. Among other things he said:

ing. Among other things he said:

At any time since the Democrats have used the campaign cry "Down with the Trusts!" they might have introduced a bill in Congress looking toward remedying the evil. We do not know whether such a bill would pass, but the Democratic Congressmen might have introduced it just to place the Republican majority on record. This Democratic minority introduces many bills for the only purpose of puting on record the Republicans. Why did they not introduce an anti-trust bill when they were in the majority in Congress, and why did they not introduce such a bill even when they were in the majority? Were they afraid it would pass? They cry out that the "tariff is the mother of trusts!" yet a protective tariff has been on the statute books for forty years and the trusts have not been made an issue until this campaign. They could have made the trusts a legitimate issue by introducing an anti-trust bill. Consistency, thou art a jewell But, Mr. Bryan, you are no jeweller!"

When George A. White, the colored Congressman

When George A. White, the colored Congressman from North Carolina, was introduced, the audience gave him three cheers. They listened with atten-tion for nearly an hour to his exposition of the new law, passed by the Democrats of his State, which disfranchises the negro in that State. He said in part:

The work of the Republican party will not be done until the effective right of a free ballot and a fair count is exercised wherever the American flag floats. I beg that you will not at this time place the Democratic party in power; the Democrats of the South are clamoring for a repeal of the Thirteenth. Fourteenth and Fifteenth Constitutional amendments which make the colored man a citizen of this country. Mr. Bryan and the Democrats of the North must listen to this demand from the South, for the South is the head and body of the Democratic party. Would you put us back into slavery? Everywhere now the Democrats of the South are organizing to legislate away the franchise from us. They want us in the South, for the South could not do without us, but they do not want us to be citizens.

South are organizing to legislate away the franchise from us. They want us in the South, for the South could not do without us, but they do not want us to be citizens.

Mr. Bryan pities the natives of the Philippines, the great majority of whom are as uncivilized as our negro ancestors were two hundred years ago. Is not our condition worthy of his pity? Have we not earned our right to citizenship in this country? Did not 175,000 black men follow the Stars and Stripes in the Civil War, and did not the negro answer the call to arms two years ago? Why should we be excluded from the Democratic pity?

SHOES

It is still the quality, style, and fit of our shoes which satisfy our patrons.

There is nothing in a fancy or catchy name. It neither improves poor shoes, nor does it detract from the merit of good ones; yet really good shoes require no such fantastic commendation.

We continue to sell shoes for Men. Women, and Children as shoes, "our shoes."
